Dear Mr Weisberg:

I am an assistant to Stewart Mott and am writing in regards to your Feb 5 letter. Unfortunately, at this point, Mr Mott is up to his ears with commitments and is having difficulty keeping up with his present responsibilities and isn't taking on anymore these days — even to the extent of meeting with someone with as interesting a project such as yours.

Yes, your letter was given thought and maybe, someday, the two of you can get together.

Sincerely,
Judy Gordon
